

Data Provider

COMPANY PRESENTATION

IHS Markit is a global leader in information, analysis and expertise in forging solutions for leading industries and markets that power economies worldwide. The company provides information, analysis and next-generation solutions to clients in the sectors of finance and government by improving operational efficiency and providing in-depth information which leads to reliable decision making. IHS Markit has more than 50,000 corporate and government clients, including 85% of the Fortune Global 500 and the world's leading financial institutions. Based throughout the world and especially in London, IHS Markit commits to sustainable and profitable growth.

SERVICE OFFERING

Markit offers versatile, scalable solutions that integrate organizations and current industry standards.

Market participants can leverage their core underlying software to support a variety of business functions, improve operational efficiency and reduce total cost of ownership. Data management and web services are a central hub for data acquisition, validation, storage and distribution. They provide a solid foundation for risk management and compliance initiatives, as well as helping businesses to streamline their operations.

WHY IHS Markit ?

A must-have player in financial data.

Offers BeeAM customers an IHS Markit product adapted to their needs.